MEMORANDUM
U.S. DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF WYOMING

2013 DEC 9 PM 3 26

STEPHAN HARRIS, CLERK
CASPER

DATE: December 9, 2013
TO: Honorable Scott W. Skavdahl
REPLY TO: Karen Bila
United States Probation Officer
SUBJECT: Jeremy Lynn Trowbridge
10CR-00118-10D

On January 19, 2011, United States District Court Judge William F. Downes, sentenced the defendant to 63 months custody to be followed by five years supervised release. On May 22, 2013, the defendant arrived at the Residential Re-Entry Center in Casper, Wyoming. On November 14, 2013, his term of supervised release began. One of the conditions of his supervision required he spend the first six months of his term at the Residential Re-Entry Center. That condition was imposed to assist the defendant in establishing stability and transitional services to assure his success on supervision.

Since his arrival at the Residential Re-Entry Center, the defendant has located employment with Custom Fiberglass as well as managing to save over $1,800. He has a dependable vehicle, which he inherited from his father, and has located a suitable apartment for release. While he has not yet completed even the first month of his Court ordered six month term, he is more stable now than he has ever been.

It is recommended the defendant be allowed to release from the Residential Re-Entry Center on December 13, 2013, and the remaining five months of his ordered term be held in abeyance.

BY THE COURT:

- ☒ Order the release of the defendant from the Residential Re-Entry Center on December 13, 2013, and hold in abeyance the remaining term.
